Business Retention and Expansion report released

After groundless attempts to prevent its' release, the long awaited Business Retention and Expansion report was finally made available in a public meeting held on Wednesday, September 28th, 2011 at the Chapleau High School Cafetorium.

Task Force Team members each took their turn in presenting parts of the report to a fair sized attentive audience.

What is Business Retention + Expansion?

Business Retention+Expansion (BR+E) is an internationally recognized community-based, volunteer-driven economic development tool that responds to local business needs and issues. BR+E encourages communities and local businesses to work together with the intention of enhancing local job creation and economic prosperity, and encourages the growth and stability of local business. Developing business and creating jobs are critical to the health and vitality of any community.

Recognizing that most new jobs come from existing businesses, a welcoming business environment that is conducive to business development is crucial.

A BR + E program strives to improve the competitiveness of local business by evaluating and addressing their needs and concerns through an extensive confidential interview process. The BR+E program is an instrument that can be used to support local communities in generating strategic advanced economic development plans, and creates a broad-based community coalition to sustain long-term economic development efforts. Project Process and Program Overview

In the fall of 2010, a group of business and interview volunteers were recruited to serve on the Chapleau Community BR+E Task Force Team (TFT). The group members received the required training for the BR+E process, and all volunteers as well as the BR+E Coordinator signed a confidentiality agreement.

The Task Force Team invited 50 businesses to participate in the project with the goal of having 28 favourable responses. Thirty-seven businesses or 74% accepted the invitation. Interview volunteers accompanied the BR+E Coordinator during the business visits and surveyed 37 businesses within the retail/service, tourism, and natural resource sectors located within township limits.

In some cases during the interview process, a business identified an immediate serious issue they had or were experiencing. These issues were identified as being "red flag" issues which required our immediate attention.

The BR + E Coordinator's responsibility was to bring these red flag issues to the attention of the TFT which in turn recommended the best course of action.

Once the interviews were completed, answers to survey questions were recorded, and then entered into an online database. At the conclusion of the surveying, various reports were generated and the TFT analyzed the survey responses.

In total, the TFT identified 12 crucial issues by the survey process, which when addressed, will meet the objectives of the BR+E program. An action plan has been recommended for each of the 12 issues.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

In early 2010, the Chapleau Economic Renewal Committee, in conjunction with funding from the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture, Foods and Rural Affairs (OMAFRA), Northern Ontario Heritage Fund Corporation (NOHFC), Superior East Community Futures Development Corporation's Local Initiatives Fund (LIF), FormationPLUS and The Chapleau Express, initiated the undertaking of a BR+E.

Short-Term Objectives

1-Demonstrate and provide community support for our local businesses by working with businesses to better understand issues they are facing and work with them in improving the overall business climate

2- Identify and address immediate business concerns by conducting business surveys that will help us determine "red flag" issues. Some potential "red flags" the project work team will work to address during the project range from businesses needing information about business support

Gala Celebration for Rotary's First 60 Years in Chapleau

By George Evans
The Rotary Club of Chapleau will celebrate its 60th birthday on October 29 with a Gala dinner-dance at the Legion.

For 60 years, with the support of the community, the Club has financially aided dozens of local organizations and individuals in their hours of need, financially assisted major local projects, arranged student exchanges so that Chapleau's young people can experience life in foreign lands, and Rotarians built with their own hands the Rotary Gazebo and planters on the waterfront. Imaginative fund-raisers, such as the Trade and Sports Show (now in hibernation, but not dead), Downtown Day, and the Girls' Night Out have made life in Chapleau more interesting as well as bringing in money for the Club's local and overseas projects.

Sadly enough, there are no living Rotarians from that day in 1951 when a group of 20 men from Chapleau received a charter for the Rotary Club of Chapleau.

However, their successors are eager to celebrate their vision on Saturday, October 29, 2011, to mark

Anniversary of the Club's beginning 60 years ago. Once a men-only organization, in the 1980s Rotary International caught up with modern reality and welcomed ladies into its ranks. To Chapleau, this means that the lady-dominated committee that brought Girls' Night Out to Chapleau last May is bringing the same imagination, flair, and Party Marty's vintage music to the Gala on October 29.

Out-of-town Rotarians are coming to the semi-formal dinner-dance at the Legion.

And Rotarians would especially like their friends in Chapleau to join them. Tickets may be purchased at the Royal Bank and at Village Shops or through any Rotarian. Seating is limited and October 29 is fast approaching.

Mansel Robinson of Chapleau named to short-list for 2011 Elinore and Lou Siminovitch Prize, the largest in Canadian theatre

Chapleau Moments

by Michael J. Morris

Chapleau's Mansel Robinson has made the shortlist for the 2011 Elinore and Lou Siminovitch Prize in Canadian Theatre, the largest prize in Canadian theatre.

BMO Financial Group, the sponsor of the prize announced that Mansel, a graduate of Chapleau High School, is one of six playwrights who have made the short-list.

The winner will receive $100,000, of which $25,000 will be awarded to a protege or organization of the recipient's choice. The prize will be presented on November 7, 2011 at a ceremony in Toronto.

Mansel has a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Western Ontario and a Master of Arts Degree from Concordia University.

In an interview with Dan Davidson of the Klondike Sun in 1999 after he became writer-in-residence at Berton House in Dawson City, Yukon, Mansel said he had done many things including working in a lumber mill, fighting fires, running a blast furnace, working the rails and doing a lot of backstage work at theatres.

Mansel told Davidson in the interview that, "I grew up listening to my father tell stories and his father and great uncles and stuff."

When I read this comment, I immediately recalled the time I first heard his father, Mansel Robinson, tell a story to a group, and sat in wonder as he told it. His father was an amazing storyteller. His father, a CPR railroader, who served as chair of the Chapleau Board of Education for many years, was also not keen on having his son work on the rails.

He also related that his father was a "history freak" adding that "his trick was to send me to the library to find some history books he hadn't read. But he had read everything..."

Mansel also gave credit to his mother, Isabel (Collinson) for creating his interest in stories, saying, "Even as a kid I could sit and listen to my mother and her friends have a coffee and a chitchat".

However, in his own right, Mansel has achieved great success. His plays include Bite The Hand, Scorched Ice, Street Wheat, Downsizing Democracy, The Heart As It Lived, Collateral Damage and Colonial Tongues. He has won the City of Regina Writing Award, Geist Magazine's Award for Distance Writing and the Saskatchewan Writers' Guild Manuscript Award.

He is a two-time winner of the John V. Hicks Award, most recently for Two Rooms, which also won the 2010 Uprising National Playwriting Competition.

In 2007, Picking up Chekhov was selected as one of five Canadian plays to be introduced and promoted into the German market. In 2008, Prise de Parole published Roc & Rail, Jean Marc Dalpe's French translation of Ghost Trains and Spitting Slag - the work was short-listed for the Governor General's Award for Translation.

Mansel has been writer-in-residence at the Berton House in Dawson City, Northern Light Theatre in Edmonton, the University of Windsor, the Regina Public Library and the Surrey Public Library. He is a past president of the Saskatchewan Playwrights Centre and is a member of the Playwrights Guild of Canada and the Writers' Union of Canada.

"The jury was thrilled with the range and quality of the work of all the playwrights nominated this year," said jury chair Maureen Labonte in a news release announcing the short-list. "The finalists demonstrate passion and imagination in their writing, as well as extraordinary voice and vision all of which contribute to building a strong Canadian theatre scene.

"The Prize recognizes both excellence within an evolving body of work as well as innovation, exploration and risk-taking. It opens up the possibility of making a real difference in the recipient's art and help further their pursuit of creativity and excellence."

The Jury reviewed nominations of professional Canadian playwrights who have advanced Canadian theatre through a body of work achieved in recent years while influencing and inspiring younger theatre artists. The jurors assessed the nominees' originality, sense of evolution, growing maturity, continuing experimentation, impact upon audiences, and/or influence upon younger artists. They also considered whether the artists were at a point in their professional career where the recognition and resources associated with the prize would make a significant difference, allowing and encouraging the artist to go further in the pursuit of his or her craft.

The Siminovitch Prize in Theatre was introduced in 2001 and dedicated to renowned scientist Lou Siminovitch and his late wife Elinore, a playwright. Sponsored by BMO Financial Group, Canada's largest annual theatre arts award recognizes direction, playwriting and design in three-year cycles.

The other finalists of 23 nominated are Robert Chafe, Newfoundland; Jasmine Dubé, Quebec; Greg MacArthur, Alberta/Quebec; Joan MacLeod, British Columbia; Larry Tremblay, Quebec.

Congratulations Mansel and all the best. Somewhat ironically, Mansel and one of his team-mates on the 1970-71 Chapleau Midgets, Armand Ruffo, a hockey team I coached, have both been very successful in the arts community achieving national and international recognition for their work. Nobody from the team played in the National Hockey League, but to this day, all the players, are still among my favourite people. My email is mj.morris@live.ca services and municipal by-laws and permits, to more serious issues like potential business closures; and

Establish and improve communication network by involving the municipality, business organizations, and businesses to facilitate the establishment and maintenance of a functional communication network.

Long-Term Objectives

The long-term objectives of the project were addressed by the action plans, and were developed after the survey results were analyzed. The goals are to:

1-Understand the local economy. The data collected from the business surveys will help us to understand the economic profile of our region, the employment levels in each of our business sectors, and the strengths/weaknesses of each sector;

2-Assist business development to create and retain jobs locally. The survey will help us identify the barriers facing businesses with which we can assist them to overcome in order to create climate for business retention and expansion; and,

3-Establish and implement a strategic action plan for local economic development. The project team will analyze the survey data, and from this analysis will develop a detailed action plan to deal with various problem areas identified during the BR+E process.

It should be noted that prior to each survey, the Leadership Team, the Task Force Team, our volunteers and the business being interviewed signed a confidentiality agreement to make certain that information shared could not be linked to individual businesses. The information presented in this report and in the full dataset ensures confidentiality, and as we move forward all those involved with the process of this project will continue to adhere to this principle.

The Leadership Team includes members of the Municipality's Chapleau Economic Renewal Committee (CERC), the Economic Development Specialist and the BR+E Coordinator. The Task Force Team (TFT) is comprised of six community volunteers and is chaired by the BR+E Coordinator.

Members of the Interview Volunteer, Partners and/or Task Force Team: Linda Bouchard-Berzel – BR+E Coordinator, Janet Broomhead – Economic Development Specialist/Interview Volunteer, Charley Plourde – Interview Volunteer, Larry Lacroix – CERC, Jocelyne Bernier – Business and financial representative, Terry Black – Business representative, Kathleen Bouchard – Business representative, Donna Byce – Business representative, Lilianne St-Martin – Educational representative and representing

Formation PLUS (partner), Mario Lafrenière (The Chapleau Express) (partner)

The TFT guided the BR+E project development by setting the overall scope, objectives, design, and policies for the project. It selected the types of businesses within the three chosen business sectors to be surveyed and developed additional survey questions pertaining to our community to be added to the pre-designed survey. The TFT participated in meetings to handle immediate "red flag" issues of local businesses.

TRILLIUM A UN MOIS OCCUPÉ...

Marche Terry Fox – s'unir pour triompher du cancer

Mercredi dernier, le 28 septembre, sous un beau ciel bleu, les élèves de Trillium ont participé à la marche Terry Fox. Les efforts combinés des élèves et des membres du personnel ont permis de ramasser 345$ qui seront remis à la fondation Terry Fox. La fondation Terry Fox organise une marche de l'espoir depuis maintenant 31 ans, à la mémoire de Terry Fox qui a couru un marathon pendant 143 jours, atteint lui-même d'un cancer, dans l'espoir de ramasser des fonds pour les recherches sur le cancer. Le cancer est une maladie qui nous touche tous, on connaît tous quelqu'un qui est atteint

STÉPHANE CÔTÉ À CHAPLEAU

Certains le comparent à Brel, d'autres à Brassens, mais pour les puristes, Côté c'est Côté.

Au public qui le découvre, Stéphane Côté surprend. L'auteur-compositeur-interprète a une « bulle » bien personnelle qu'il offre avec un zeste de pudeur et beaucoup de finesse. Il sait captiver et enchanter l'auditeur par son humour, sa tendresse et sa présence sympathique. Sa simplicité et sa vérité séduisent à tout coup. Que ce soit au Québec, dans les Maritimes, en France, en Suisse ou en Belgique, son passage n'a laissé aucun spectateur indifférent. Il charme toujours le public avec ses histoires, ses images, sa poésie et ses mélodies.

Stéphane nous offre son 3^e opus. Le nouvel album, des nouvelles, est un album de folk moderne avec des du cancer du rein, de la prostate, du sein ou autre. Les nouvelles connaissances et la technologie dans le domaine de la recherche sur le cancer ont contribué à diminuer le pourcentage de personnes qui succombent à la maladie.

Valeur du mois : accueil

L'accueil est la valeur du mois pour septembre à l'école secondaire catholique Trillium et se vit de la part des élèves. Plusieurs élèves se sont démarqués des autres en démontrant cette valeur tout au long du mois : Danyelle Bernier (7^e année), Stéphanie Gauthier (8^e), Cassidy Fortin (9^e), Amber Mailloux (10^e), Christiane Morin-Domingue (11^e), Stéphane Houle (12^e). L'accueil peut se vivre de plusieurs façons : vis-à-vis notre prochain, des personnes différentes, indifférentes ou même de nos adversaires. Même si ces gens nous sont étrangers, il est important de leur tendre la main, leur adresser la parole ou simplement leur sourire pour les sortir de leur isolement. C'est de rencontrer l'autre, là où il est et de faire route ensemble, apprendre à se connaître, partager des moments, se respecter avec ses talents et ses limites, ses qualités et ses défauts, ses forces et ses faiblesses, ses rêves et sa réalité.

chansons riches en mots vrais et en mélodies accrocheuses. On y trouve des « nouvelles » (saveur Stéphane Côté) sur la vie... l'amour, le quotidien et l'humain en quête de bonheur. Une réalisation colorée et qui transpire l'amour de la chanson, qui touche au cœur et qui fait sourire.

Stéphane Côté est certes un auteur-compositeur-interprète, mais c'est surtout un merveilleux enchanteur! Le spectacle aura lieu le mardi 8 novembre à 19 h 30. À ne pas manquer!!!!

F+ FÊTE SES 20 ANS AVEC TRILLIUM!

Fort Boyard

20 ans pour le Centre de Formation PLUS, c'est tout un événement, combiné avec la fête du Jour Franco-Ontarien... cela se fête en grand. Le vendredi 23 septembre dernier, « Formation PLUS », centre de formation pour adulte a choisi d'offrir une activité amusante et divertissante aux élèves de l'école secondaire catholique Trillium. L'activité sous le format de Fort Boyard (un jeu télévisé d'origine française créé en 1990) comprenait 10 stations variées où chaque équipe devait relever un défi : course, sudoku, jeux-questionnaires, énigmes, lancer-libre au ballon-panier, Le banquier, la Guerre des clans, Plinko et autres. Chaque victoire rapportait une ou plusieurs clés à son équipe. 2011 CP Holiday Train: Making a difference, one stop at a time

CNW - North America's longest-running rolling food bank fundraiser begins its unique trek across Canada and the U.S. Midwest and Northeast the last weekend of November in its cross-border mission to feed communities.

For the 13th

year, two specially decorated freight trains will launch their unique journeys across six Canadian provinces and eight U.S. states: The U.S. Holiday Train on Friday, November 25 while the Canadian train will begin its cross-country trek on Sunday, November 27.

About 150 cities and towns on both sides of the border will be able to join the Holiday Train spirit and magic, with all food and money raised at each stop staying in that community for local distribution.

Since 1999, the CP Holiday Train program, powered by an army of employee volunteers, has raised $5.6 million and generated close to 2.5 million pounds of food donations for local food shelves.

Each Holiday Train has 14 rail cars decorated with hundreds of thousands of festive lights. Included is a modified boxcar that has been turned into a travelling stage for performers.

Headlining the musical spirit of the season from a specially designed stage on the Canadian Holiday Train is Canadian legend Valdy, while leading the musical message on the U.S. train stage will be Wisconsin's Willy Porter.

The 2011 CP Holiday Train schedule is now available on cpr.ca - a website that more than 150,000 visitors check out each holiday season to get the latest updates and the train stop nearest them. As well, both Holiday Trains can be followed on Facebook and on Twitter (@CP Holiday train).
